EARL OF DARTMOUTH TO VISIT AMERICA

CHICAGO, June 2.- The Dartmouth Soclety of Chicago has been notified by Charles T. Gallagher, of Boston, that the present Earl of Dartmouth intends coming to America in the autumn, and will visit the college. He will arrive in New York about His ancestor was the active patron of the college in 1765, and his name was given to it by Dr. Wheelock. Prominent graduates are to meet the earl on his arrival and entertain him in New York, Boston and Hanover. It is likely that the trustees will ask the earl to lay the cornerstone of the new Dartmouth Hall, for the erection of which funds are now being

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: - I feel it my duty to tell all young women how much Lydia E. Pinkham's won-derful Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was completely rundown, unable to attend school, and did not care for any kind of society, but now I feel like a new person, and have gained seven pounds of flesh in three months.

"I recommend it to all young women who suffer from female weakness." - MISS ALMA PRATT, Holly, Mich. - $5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

A piano with a most unique record, and one that has perhaps made more friends in recent years than any other plano of its price ever introduced. Their pianos are to-day the most artistically cased of any instruments on the market, and have furnished models for all manufacturers in the trade. In character of tone they have a peculiarly sympathetic quality which endears them to all who are sensitive, and especially those who love the romantic school of music.

TO SUNDAY JOURNAL READERS

One of the New Datch Poster Effects to Be Given Free with The Sunday Journal

The craze for things original was never more pronounced than at the present time. The fact that pictures of this kind had never been used except by the higher class art dealers convinced the publishers of the Journal that a series that had several poster pictures in would become exceeding-

"The Cowboy," with its strong colors, is a perfect drawing, and no brighter, more artistic bit of color could be found than this framed in a modest black wood, hung on a red or green wall in the hall, den. dining room or cozy cornec. Remember that nothing of this kind has ever been issued before is a newspaper supplement, and it is extermely probable that any number instead of arranging in advance will anticipate no trouble in getting this picture from their newsman next Sunday. Do not take any chances, but leave your order to-day for next Sunday's
